ADA WOODWARD PAROLED

Chickasha, Okla., Feb. 15.—Following the receipt of official papers from Governor Cruce, Mrs. Ada Woodward left here Saturday on a 30 day parole. She will go to Willow, Okla., where her mother and children are now living. She is under a life sentence for the murder of her husband Sherman Woodward.

The parole is allowed in order that Mrs. Woodward may recuperate. Her physical condition since she was brought here from Lawton following the final trial of John Tremont, and at which time he was acquitted of the crime, has been very poor and it is stated that another operation will probably be necessary in a few weeks. While not officially stated it is thought probable that if the woman is not recovered at the expiration of her parole, the time will be extended.

GIN STAND BURNED; SEED HOUSE SAVED

Chickasha, Okla., Feb. 15.—The plant of the Farmers' Gin company is a mass of cinders, twisted rods and ruined machinery as the result of a blaze that completely destroyed the building. It was a splendidly equipped plant and the loss is placed at over $5,000.

The cause of the fire is not definitely fixed, as when discovered by the night operator at the Frisco depot, it was a mass of flames. However, several tramps were seen about the place early in the evening and it is thought possible or even probable that the fire is the result of their tenancy of the building.

Two cotton seed houses were saved by the prompt and efficient work of the fire-fighters and the engine and boiler, located in the west end of the gin building, were in a measure saved. Outside of a few melted bushings the engine is said to be in fair condition, while the boiler, with a few repairs, may again be used.

The gin was shut down about three weeks ago, for the season, and the owner, A. D. Brown, returned at that time to his home in Anadarko. The gin stands and other machinery of the gin proper, are a total loss.

Sales Day

The Third Monday Sales, held here today was largely attended. A large amount of horses, cattle, household goods and in fact everything imaginable, was put up and sold.

That these sales are fast becoming more popular with the public is evident by the crowds of farmers that were here today. It gives the public a chance to dispose of articles at a good price and at very little expense.
